WPMB No. 837 of 2002
Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J.
Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

Heard Sri Majoj Tewari learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri K.P. Upadhyaya learned Standing Counsel.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the no substantial question is left to be decided in view of the order passed by this court in W.P. No. 241 (M/B) 2003, which is quoted under:-

> "Learned advocate for the petitioner states that he does not press the challenge to the notification dated 3rd January 2002. Therefore, to that extent the writ petition stands dismissed.
>
> The registration Tribunal has now been set up by the State of Uttaranchal. This is an admitted position. Petitioner has applied for registration. We are directing the Registration Tribunal to register the petitioner only if the petitioner hold the requisite educational qualifications 1991 for the diploma course in Pharmacy.
>
> Accordingly, writ petition is disposed of."

In view of the aforesaid order, the petition has been rendered infructuous and dismissed as such.
